Sir,

4 It is customary to seek sanction for journeys performed outside the State, only after the tour is actually completed. This is done because, it may not always be possible to keep to the programme and any deviation from the sanctioned programme would require a modificatory order subsequently for the bills to be admitted in audit. On the last occasion, for instance, the Minister had not programmed to touch Bombay during his Delhi trip; but he had actually to do so to see Sirdar Patel. In the circumstances explained above, sanction of first kind is sought after the Minister's return. 5 This note should have been written on a separate routine note. I have observed inordinate delay in submitting note to the Chief Secy. This may be noted as it is 9.9.49
